Summer School:
Monday 17th and Tuesday 18th August 2026

Dear Parent/Carer,

We are delighted your son will be joining us at Summer School. This letter outlines key information about both days.

Times

Summer School will run from 9.30am to 2.00pm. Entrance to the school site is via the front gate and on foot. Your son should arrive on the school site no earlier than 9.15am. On Monday 17th August, he should go straight to the Dining Hall where he will receive information about the days' events. On Tuesday, he will go straight to his form room. Staff will be on duty to guide him.

Clothing

Boys will take part in a range of activities including sports and outdoor sessions. He should be dressed in casual, comfortable clothes. He will need trainers and football boots with moulded studs (if possible). Shin pads are advised. Please check the weather forecast as wet weather clothes and/or sun cream and hats may be needed.

Lunch

Students must bring their own packed lunch. They will also need a refillable water bottle which can be topped up during the day. Fizzy and energy drinks are not permitted.

Activities

|          |             |                         |
|----------|-------------|-------------------------|
| Football | Bug Survey  | Five ways to well-being |
| Drama    | News Centre | Basketball              |

Your son may choose to bring a mobile phone. If so, he is solely responsible for its safety. He is not permitted to use his phone during the activities but may check at lunch and the end of the day should you need to message them.

School is not responsible for the loss or damage to mobile phones.

For the safety and enjoyment of all children, if your son's behaviour consistently fails to meet the expected standard, you may be required to collect him early. Please ensure you are available to be contacted between 9.30am and 2.00pm on both days.

If you need to update school with important information ahead of summer school, such as a change to contact details, attendance and medication please email classof2031@westhillschool.co.uk prior to Monday 17th August.

Kind regards,
Mrs. K. Anderton
Assistant Headteacher
